Under the Flowers as white as Snow
Up the Hills
Voices of the Past
Waltam Rheine, De
Wait her, Angels, through the Skies
Waiting for thee
Wake up, Gabriel
Was there any Harm in that?
Watchman, tell us of the Night
We have gathered Home To-day
We'll triumph by and by
What hast thou done for me?
What Katy did
What the Little Lips are saying
What though I trace each Herb and flower
When I'm o'er the rolling Sea
When Mamma was a little Girl
When the Evening Shades are falling
When the Roses are blooming again
When Violets bloom again
When we meet to part no more
When you and I were boys
When you and I were young

TRIFET'S

HARMONIZED MELODIES

CONTAINS

400 SONGS

ARRANGED AND HARMONIZED FOR

VOICE AND PIANO

—BY—

CHARLES D. BLAKE.

It includes the BEST of the OLD and the LATEST of the NEW.

SEE LIST SURROUNDING THIS ADVERTISEMENT.

Every note on every page was set up for this book, and it is not a lot of old plates printed together in book form, but a complete book in itself, the first edition of 10,000 copies having cost over $4000.00—more money than the combined expense attending the preparation of any ten books now on the market.

It contains 256 pages, each 10 x 12½ inches, printed in the best manner on good paper, and NO OTHER BOOK OF VOCAL MUSIC can be compared with

HARMONIZED MELODIES.

Price, paper covers, postpaid - - - - - 60 Cents
Half-cloth, sewed backs, postpaid - - - - - $1.00

Premium Offers. For 75 cents we will send a copy of HARMONIZED MELODIES in paper, and the WEEKLY JOURNAL OF SHEET MUSIC six months or for $1.60 we will send the Weekly one year and a copy of the book in half cloth. We pay postage in both cases to any part of the United States, Canada or Mexico.
